

PERU UPDATE

November 2004

Jeremy, Amanda and Kayla Ross

Nickels and Dimes

We have just returned from a month-long itineration trip. Our quote from the trip that has now become our theme statement was from a pastor in Hattiesburg, Mississippi. As we prepared to leave his office, he said,

“Just remember, if you can’t trust Him with the nickels and the dimes, how are you going to be able to trust Him with the souls of the street kids?”

And that just about sums it up. We serve a God who has sent His only Son to pay the price for our own sin. He created us, redeemed us, and sustains us. We have an eternal inheritance. Certainly, this God can be trusted with the nickels and dimes that we need to get to Lima, Peru.

FINANCIAL UPDATE

In order to go to language school in January, we must have 100% of our support.

Therefore, we need:

- 15 financial partners at $100 a month
- 25 financial partners at $50 a month
- 40 financial partners at $25 a month

Please prayerfully consider joining our team.

(Kayla is 11 months old already! _)

The Greatest Gift

I (Amanda) had the great opportunity of speaking with a kindergarten class in Birmingham, Alabama about our ministry in Peru. At the end, the teacher told me that one of her students had been working hard and wanted to give me something. A precious girl handed me a dollar bill with a smile on her face. This kindergarten child gave me such a beautiful gift! She encouraged me and showed me God’s grace through her sacrifice and cheerful giving. One dollar at a time, God is proving His faithfulness to us.

PRAYER BOX

1. praise- for 68 families and 7 churches that are supporting us so far!
2. for traveling ease and safety this next month
3. for God’s continued provision
4. that we would learn to trust Him with the nickels and the dimes
