

Peru, Perhaps

“May I not say, ‘Today or tomorrow I will go to this or that city’ ...for I do not even know what my life will be tomorrow. Instead, let me say, ’If the Lord wills, I will live and do this or that.’”

James 4:13-16

God is asking us to simply trust, and he will take care of the rest. His timing is the best!

GOD’S WAYS

“Why do you want to speak to the youth group? You know they aren’t going to give you any money.”

That was a question that was asked me (Amanda) by a youth director. He was right. Why would we spend one of our Sunday mornings speaking to youth when we could be speaking to a classroom full of gainfully employed adults?

Well, we did speak to that youth group. It was a blessing to us to hear the questions of these young people as they thought about the life of a street child and how the Gospel can transform the most downtrodden of people. We left that Sunday School class encouraged.

The next day, the youth director said, “You must have said something right because this youth group is on fire for your ministry. They are coming up with contests and support raisers to figure out how they can support you to get to Peru.”

God has given us the incredible privilege to get people excited about God’s power and His ability to transform lives across the nations. It’s not all about the dollars and cents. God is so good at surprising us with the way He provides in unexpected ways.

MONEY MATTERS

We spoke with MTW this week, and they said what we really need right now are pledges. If you have given a one-time gift or considered supporting our ministry, would you think and pray about whether you could make a monthly, quarterly or annual pledge? Even if you can’t send the money now, a pledge in faith would get us closer to our goal of getting to Peru.

We are about halfway there right now and praying towards leaving the beginning of May.

If you are interested in submitting a pledge, you can either call our advisor/coach Barbara Jones at the MTW office 678-832-0004 x217 and e-mail bjones@mtw.org or write to Mission to the World P.O. Box 116284 Atlanta, GA 30368-6284. Our account # is 016579.

If you want to contact us, our number is 305-667-0746 or e-mail: kaylagoestoperu@aol.com.

We are blessed and encouraged by your faithful friendship, prayers and support. We really can't wait to be writing you from Peru about God's amazing work there and what He is teaching us about his power and indescribable grace! In Christ Alone, Jeremy, Amanda and Kayla Ross
