

Peru Perhaps

Jeremy and Amanda Ross

January 2006

2006 promises to be an eventful year with a baby in February and a move to Peru sometime this Spring!

A Bonus Blessing

We had a fantastic Christmas Celebration! As you know, our timing would have had us in Peru by this time. But God knew what He was doing and has allowed us to enjoy some incredible time with family and friends over the holidays. We have cherished each moment, not knowing when we will have these opportunities again. (I couldn't figure out how to insert a picture here, so it is attached at the end, and it is of Aunt Joy and Kayla Joy on the traditional Baking Day a few days before Christmas)

Money Matters and More

Starting the beginning of January, we have shifted our focus from full-time support raising to Spanish language learning. We have an excellent tutor who is helping us get a head start, and it is an exciting step for us as it gets us that much closer to ministry in Lima.

That being said, we have not yet raised all of our support. We are continuing to follow-up with churches and individuals and are attending several missions conferences over the next few months. We are hovering right around 90% and would humbly ask that you be on your knees with us, trusting that God will provide the rest of our support.

Our plan right now is to try to leave for Peru this coming April. That is right around the corner, and there are many details to be taken care of before then.

Kayla's Korner

We were able to have Advent Devotions with Kayla this December. During one of our first explanations of Christmas, I asked Kayla whose birthday it was that we are celebrating. To understand her response, you have to know that every time we pray, at the end whoever is praying says, "In Jesus Name, ." and Kayla says, "AMEN!" So when I asked Kayla the name of whose birthday we were celebrating at Christmas, she said, "BABY AMEN." Afterall, that is Jesus' name, right? We cannot even begin to express to you what a privilege and joy it has been to tell Kayla the Christmas story for the first time and to see her begin to understand it.

It has been great fun to hear from so many of you this Christmas! We love seeing pictures of your family and catching up with you. Last year, we lost our database and are now attempting to recreate it. If you don't mind, could you please reply to this e-mail with your phone number and birthdays? That would really help us be able to stay in touch with you. Thanks so much for your gifts, your loving care for us and your many prayers. We can look back to God's faithfulness in 2005 and look forward to His continued work in the coming year.

In Christ,
