October 2006 Peru Update

Kayla and Bella enjoying the first days of SPRING!

PRAYER SQUARE

"I lift my eyes to the hills-where does my help come from?
My help comes from the LORD, the Maker of heaven and earth." Psalm 121:1-2

- Pray that Kayla and Bella's resident visas would come through smoothly and that we could pick them up in Chili next month
- Pray for a Latin America conference Oct. 11-18 in Panama, that we would be refreshed and encouraged and have some great team-building time with the missionaries from Lima.
- Pray for our language learning as we look towards moving to Lima in January, ready for full-time ministry
- Pray for a continued maturity in our own prayer lives as we humbly seek the Lord's face in the midst of transition.
- Pray for our team in Lima and for two families that are currently raising support in order to join our team soon.

Cultural Quips

Stalking taxis- if you come visit, you will NEVER have a problem finding a taxi. The problem will be finding too many taxis. They are aggressive. The game is which one you look at first. They will honk from blocks away, flashing their lights hoping to get your attention and to win the race for your taxi fare. They will follow you as you walk down the sidewalk, just sure that you want to jump in.

Romantic trashmen- you cannot put your trash out before the garbage truck arrives because the dogs will eat it. Therefore, the trashmen have to let you know when they arrive in your neighborhood. So, they play classical music from loud speakers to get your attention. Imagine waking up to Beethoven's Fifth and garbage men "waltzing" down your street.

You are a great blessing to us! God has been so faithful in providing such a committed team of supporters. Thank you for your continued prayers.

By His Grace Alone,

The Ross Family

We always love hearing from you!
